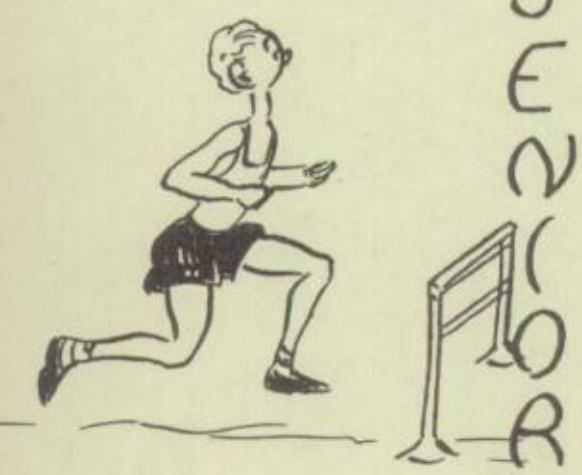
SENIOR CALENDAR



September 8: Lazy autumn days and lagging feet, but keen anticipation of a happy last year.

November 3-4: Home coming! Old grads and future grads assemble for one "grad" time, cheer the team to victory, and spend the evening dancing to Jess Sawaya's orchestra.

November 30: Thanksgiving—for a vacation! Everybody comes back with a lazy feeling. Too bad we can't eat like that everyday—and live.

December 23: Jingle bells and shopping money.

January 1: Just jingle bells.

January 3: Return to the grind—and the fun.

January 9: Peanut Bowl classic—everyone cracking peanuts as he watched ten other nuts cracking each other. The faculty retained the shaving mug by a narrow (?) margin.

February 3: Winter Carnival—thrills, spills, chills—pills.

April 20: Track Meet—On your mark! Get set! Go! Hand me a marshmallow, somebody. The cinders are hot; spikes are smoking; the starter's gun is smoking; the track men are sm - - wait a minute! That isn't right. But what a team!

May 4: A. A. U. W. Gingham breakfast—Senior girls in gingham—great event!

May 4: Prom Night—Stardust in her eyes (blue, brown, hazel?) Dreamy juniors and subdued, but happy seniors dance their way to the end of a perfect day at the finest social function of the year, the Junior-Senior Promenade.

May 7: "Death Takes a Holiday." And a very good one, too, we might add.

May 18: C. F. W. C. Dessert Luncheon and picture show—the girls get all the breaks!

May 24: Senior Day—'nuf said!

May 26: Baccalaureate—"Senioritis" all gone, we are subdued and sad at parting.

May 29: Commencement—Adios!

"History, with all her volumes vast, hath but one page."

The Seniors, following their well-established policy of "Biggah and Bettah!" presented this year a psychological drama entitled "Death Takes a Holiday." The story concerns the three-day vacation of "Death," spent in an Italian villa.

Congratulations to Miss Brace, the director, and to each member of an excellent cast.

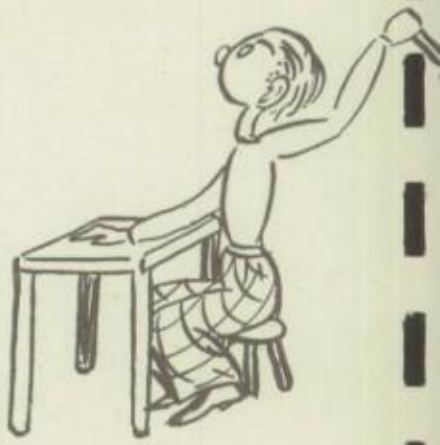
STUDENT COUNCIL

Peggy

President ---------- Peggy Walker
Vice-president ---------- Bill Thompson
Secretaries ---------- Loraine Simpson, Geneva Vallejos
Treasurers ---------- Maxine Franch, Bob DeRouen



The Student Council celebrated its fifth birthday this year. It has grown to be quite a child, capable of formulating most of the school policies which directly affect the students.

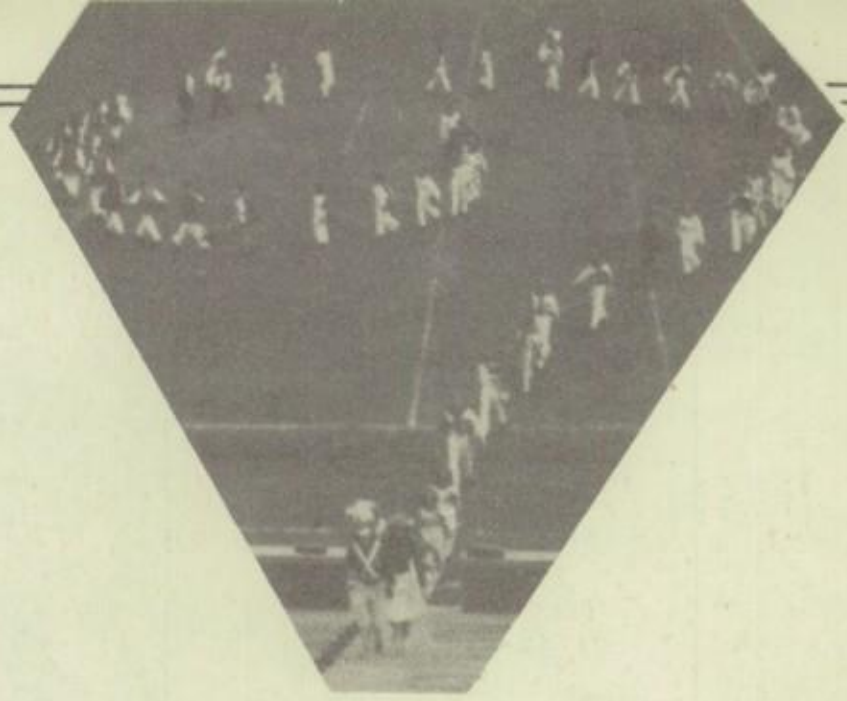
This year representatives attended conventions at Monument and at Walsenburg. At the latter convention Trinidad was elected secretary-treasurer of the North Central Student Council and was unanimously selected to act as host at the spring convention in 1941.

HI-Y

The 1939-40 school year for Trinidad Hi-Y has been most active and successful. The outstanding events of the year were the annual Older Boys' Convention in November, in Trinidad for the first time in eleven years, the Father-Mother-Son banquet on April 10, and the ice-skating party at Monument Lake in January.

Two of the most interesting programs presented were the Camp Wood pictures and pictures from "King of Kings" shown to us by two Mormon missionaries, Mr. Palmer and Mr. Davis.

BAND



The band has risen to new heights under the able leadership of Mr. Earl Powell, who was a fortunate addition to the faculty. During the first semester the organization was composed of fifty-four members. It enlivened our football games by various maneuvers and letter formations between halves, and it had the honor of greeting Kate Smith at the Santa Fe depot when she made her short stop in Trinidad.

Fifty members composed the band during second semester. On April 18 they attended the State Music Contest in Pueblo, where they participated in the parade in the morning and contests later in the day. They also participated in the Trinidad Music Festival held here in April.

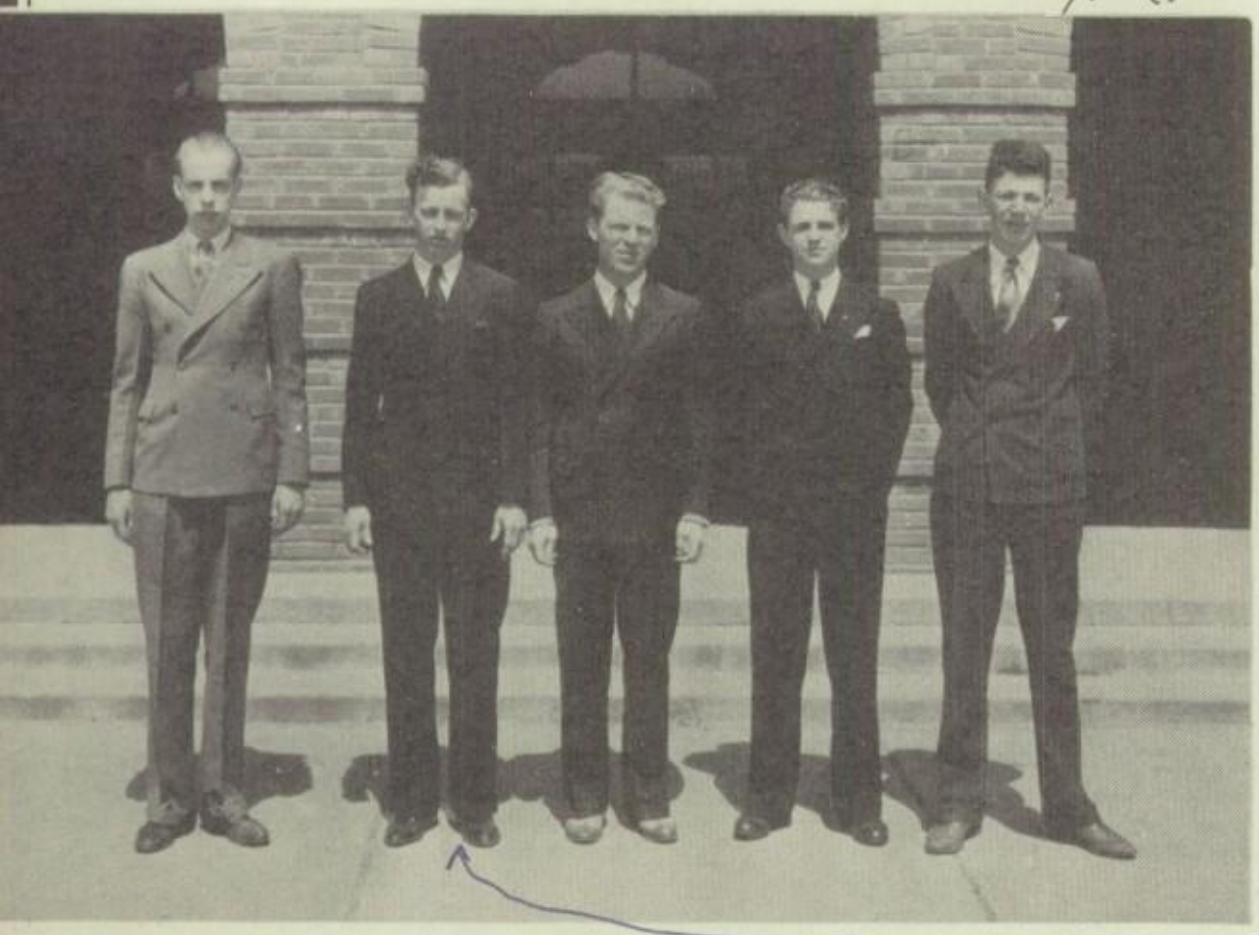
ORCHESTRA

"Music hath charms to soothe the savage breast" — and our high school orchestra has often proved the truth of the poet's sentiment. Working enthusiastically under the direction of Mr. Earl Powell, these capable musicians of T. H. S. have contributed materially to the pleasure of both students and public.

CHORUS

The High School chorus certainly did a great deal of singing this year. Good singing too. Just ask anyone who attended the Christmas program, the Raton assembly—in fact, any program in which the chorus took part. He'll tell you. Mrs. Tyer has achieved something very fine indeed with this year's chorus. Congratulations to her and to the singers.

DEBATE



Debating in 1940 took a turn for the better, after two years of comparative inactivity. Its encouraging revival did much to raise the prestige of T. H. S. along cultural lines. Coach Jack Walton skillfully directed the team, composed of Bob Tatum, Jack Duren, John Abrums, and Morton Swetnam, in a majority of the ten inter-scholastic debates held.

On the question, "Resolved: That the United States government should own and operate the railroads," they debated with Walsenburg, Colorado Springs, Regis, Pueblo Central, and Greeley, making in each instance a very commendable showing.

JUNIOR PLAY

There's a fine array of talent in that Junior Class of T.H.S. "The Ghost Flies South," presented by them November 28, was a bit of all right. The capable cast, under the direction of Miss Brace, neatly dispatched the Ghost southward and sent the audience into gales of laughter. Fine work, juniors—fine work!

JUNIOR PROMENADE

All traditional Junior-Senior hostility was suspended for one night in 1940 — Saturday night, May 4. Stardust and syncopation mellowed even the class officers and true-blue feuders. It was Junior-Senior Promenade night. It was heaven—figuratively and literally. Stars and moons and planets gleamed silver in the deep blue sky. A silver moon, half risen, glowed above Jess Sawaya and his orchestra, playing music which was really "in the mood."

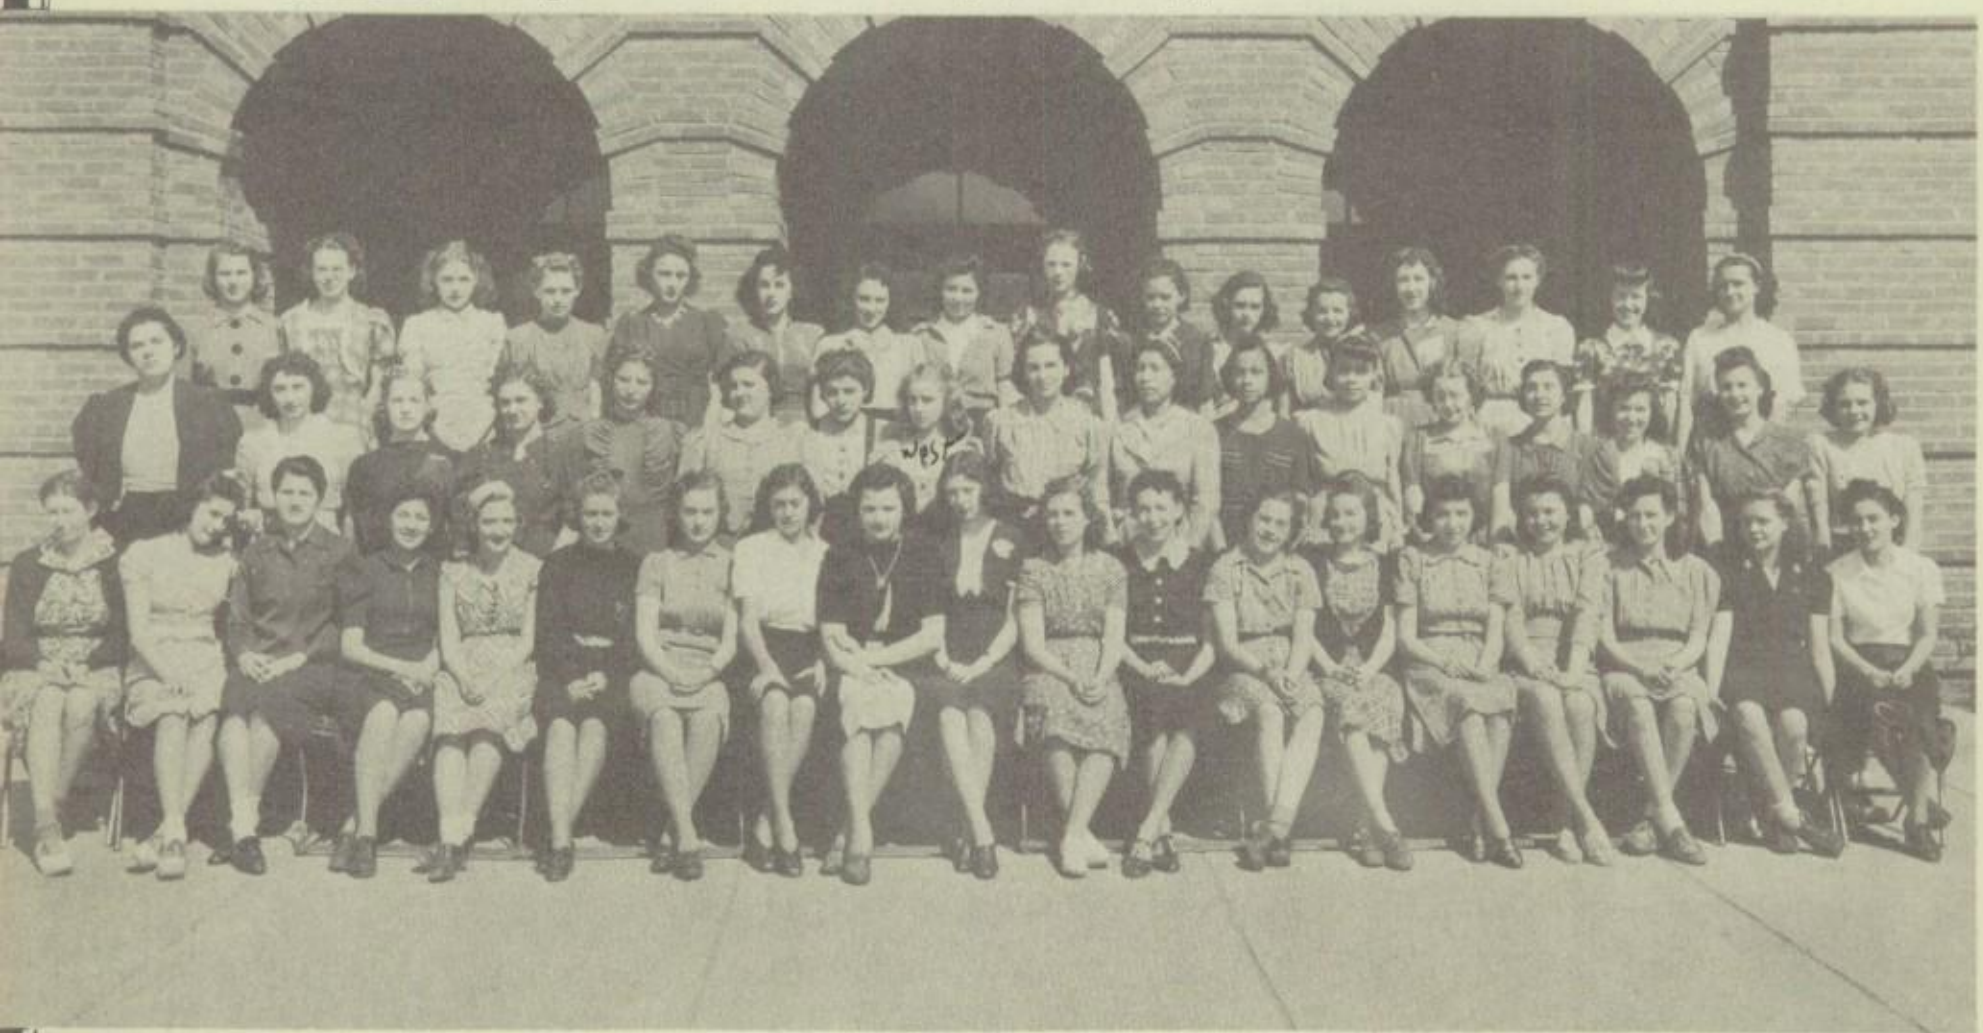
The seniors, to say nothing of the juniors, commended Miss Horn, sponsor, Harold Norris, Prom chairman, and the entire committee for a very lovely 1940 Promenade.

GIRL RESERVES

For six consecutive years the Girl Reserves, with Mrs. Bernece Chmelka as sponsor, have been prominent in Trinidad High School activities.

The girls have enjoyed many social functions, the most outstanding of which was a Hallowe'en masquerade dance at the Elks Hall.

The officers of the organization for this year were Maxine Franch, president; Margaret Romaine, vice-president; Marie Sawaya, secretary; and Rose Marie Ferraro, treasurer.



F. H. C.

Organized and sponsored by Miss Ruth Davis, the F. H. C., in its initial year at T. H S., has enjoyed remarkable success in all its endeavors. Built on a theme of "Alice in Homeland," a yearbook was issued, consisting of nine parts and containing, among other things, a "Girls' Creed" and a program for the year.

Development of personality and problems of health and beauty were among the topics discussed at the more serious meetings, while parties, teas, and a banquet furnished entertainment of a lighter kind.

Sports

FOOTBALL

The Trinidad High Miners opened their season against the Raton Tigers in a wet night game under the newly installed lights. The Tigers won before a capacity crowd.

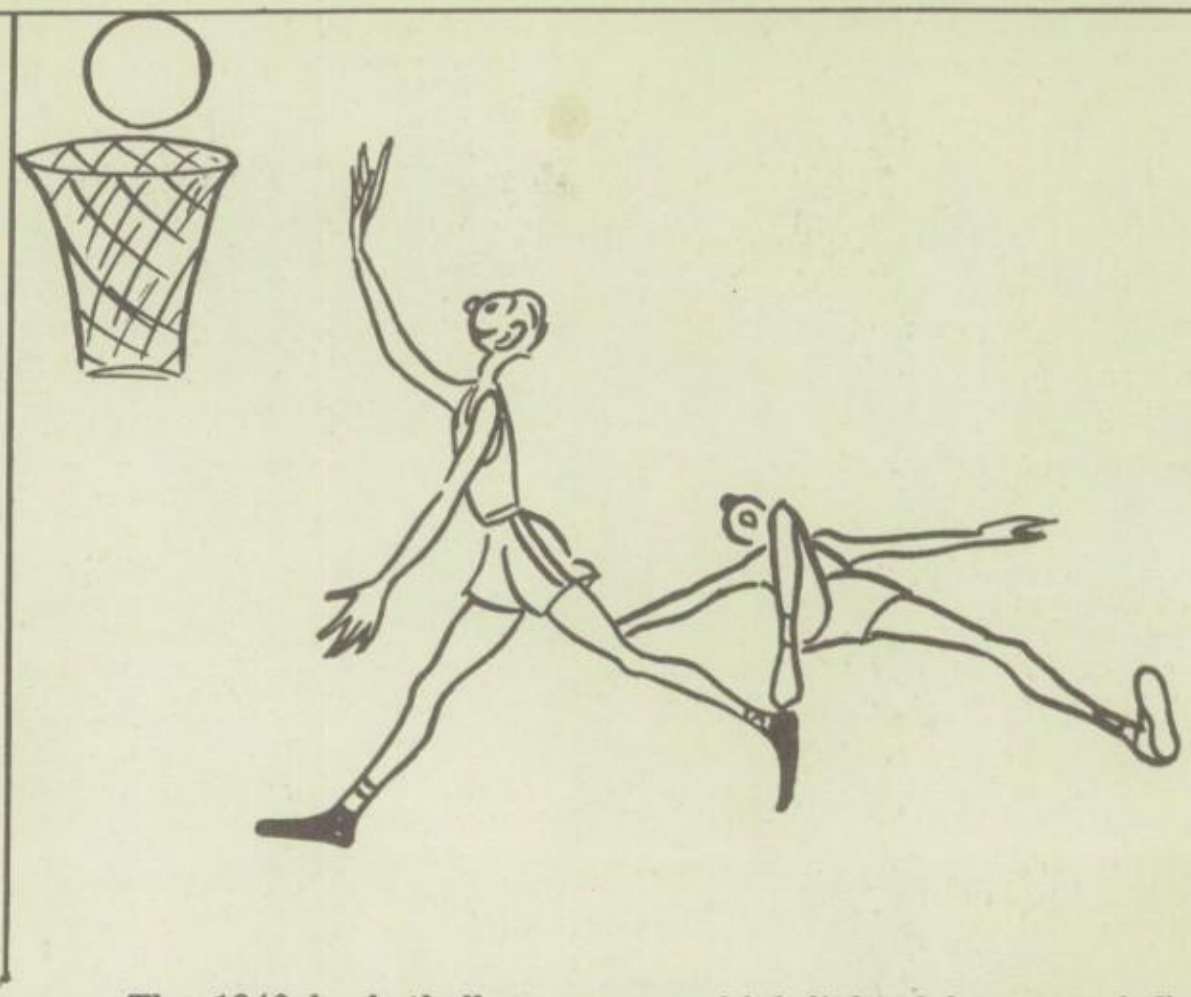
During the course of the season the Miners dropped two more games to conference competitors, including one to the conference champions, Pueblo Centennial, lost by one lone point.

With Walsenburg, their traditional rivals, the white-shirted Miners battled forty-eight minutes to a deadlock.

As the season reached the mid-point, the Coal-Diggers reached their stride, winning easily from Canon City and Salida, and in the best game of their season defeated Pueblo Central in a soul-satisfying victory to avenge the stinging defeat of last year.

Lettermen for 1939 were Joe Cardwell, Tom Komora, Les Sayre, Jim Murray, Pete Bacich, Ray Owens, Alfred Bailey, John Niccoli, John Bacich, Hector Cordova, George Benich, Harold Norris, Bill Thompson, Norman Zeppa, John Daugherty, Barney Shaw, Fred Shew, and Sandy Cross.

BASKETBALL



The 1940 basketball season was high-lighted by several fine games, although the record was not quite up to the standard set by previous teams. The 1940 team made a creditable showing in spite of two unlucky breaks—the loss of a '39 letter-man and fine player, Dick Bardrick, who moved to California, and an injury to Bob Mertz, who incurred a sprained ankle early in the season.

After winning five out of nine pre-season games, the Miners downed Canon City and Raton in two of their most interesting games; they also won games from Florence and Central during the conference season.

1940 letter-men included five seniors, Mertz, Komora, Fisher, East and Daugherty; and six very promising underclassmen, Sayre, Shew, Shaw, Sena, Murray, and Cassa.

TRACK

The 1940 track squad, under the able direction of Coach Raleigh Holt, looks like a real pennant winner. The boys handily won the Trinidad Junior College invitational meet, which is one of the largest in Colorado. Fred Shew set new records in the shot and discus. The 440-relay team also set a new record. John Daugherty, veteran sprinter, is looking better than ever. Jim Murray is a sure point winner in the high and low hurdles. Hector Cordova is doing fine work in the 880-yard run, as is diminutive Al Lucero in the mile run. The team looks forward to retaining its conference title, and making a good showing at the state meet in Boulder. Coach Holt plans to send relay teams and possibly big Fred Shew to either C. C. or Boulder relays

TENNIS

This year's tennis team, consisting of four seniors and one junior, has thus far swept aside all opposition in the South-Central conference and is determined to make a strong bid for the Colorado State championship. Hugh Fisher, veteran of four years and number one ranking man for three years, is showing fine form and has yet to drop a match. The team suffered the loss of a brilliant racket wielder when Dick Bardrick moved to California prior to the 1940 season.

Coach "Swede" Palmquist really has his hands full this year with twenty-seven boys regularly pounding the courts. This is the largest squad in the high school's history and shows growing interest in this fine sport.

INTRA-MURAL

Intra-mural activities reached a new high in interest this year. Every home room cooperated splendidly with Mr. Holt and the gym leaders, who did a fine job of supervising the various games, matches, and contests.

Over four hundred boys participated in these activities, every boy in school having an opportunity to compete regardless of size and athletic ability. Pennants were given for championship and consolation rating.

The following homerooms won pennants:

Basketball-Championship	Holt
Consolation	King
Volleyball-Championship	King
Consolation	Palmquist
Wrestling-Championship	Holt
Track Meet-Championship	Holt

Events yet to be completed were the free-throw tournament, the co-recreational volleyball, tennis, and golf.

There has been a continued growth in the activities of the G. A. A. within the four years since its organization in T. H. S. Besides the former program of tournaments in volleyball, basketball, deck tennis, aerial darts, and baseball, there has been added this year a program of co-recreational activities, conducted through home-rooms.

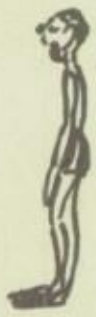
SPARK PLUGS

CUP-WINNERS



The T. H. S. cross-country team, organ-ed only three years ago, has already con-ibuted its share to the trophy case. This ear it defeated all opposition for the third ccessive year, and as a result the Jackson rophy has become the permanent property T. H. S. This year's team was composed iefly of sophomores and freshmen. Pat ontoya, a senior, was the only runner who rticipated in all three victories.

GOLF

The members of the Trinidad High School golf team are once more grooming themselves for a season of tournament play under the direction of Jack "Buck" Walton. The golfing spirit is keener than ever, and a more enthusiastic group of boys could not be found anywhere.

The boys out for golf are Tom Warburton, Frank Tavella, George Koonsman, Ed Snickerson, Ed Clamp, Irwin Rogers, Harry Sayre, Ronald Risley, Philip Germer, Ralph Werden, and Bill Bryning.
